

T I M E L I N E

2 0 1 8

August 2018

Product offering for social sector and education community announced

Pluralsight One launches a new suite of product offerings for social and education sectors to amplify their capacity and equip them and the communities they support with technology skills.

July 2018

Joined the United Nations' Economic and Social Council Summit (ECOSOC)

Pluralsight One shared their work in a session about restoring humanity, respecting human dignity and reducing vulnerability.

June 2018

July 2018

Pluralsight One joins Utah State Board of Education IT Advisory Board

Pluralsight One invited to statewide IT Advisory Board to support the growth of Utah's students, future workforce, and educators

Appointed to State of Computer Science Tech Task Force

As an industry representative, Pluralsight One is responsible for providing computer science education reform recommendations approved by the Board of Education.

June 2018

Honoring World Refugee Day

Honored displaced refugees around the world with No Lost Generation and UNICEF and celebrated collaborations to build solutions with youth in the Middle East.

May 2018

Pluralsight founders recommit to Pluralsight One ahead of IPO

In advance of the Pluralsight IPO, founders commit 1% equity to Pluralsight One.

April 2018

Joined Governor's Tech Pathways Board

Pluralsight joins Tech Pathways Board to connect the Utah business community, public education and government agencies to ensure workforce readiness.

April 2018

Global employee giving & volunteer platform launched

Benevity is activated for employee giving and volunteerism.

March 2018

Pluralsight One appointed to IT & CS Advisory Board Council (Code.org)

As part of national council advancing and advocating for computer science, Pluralsight One is appointed to this national group.

February 2018

Pluralsight One conducts site visits in Jordan and Lebanon

Pluralsight One collaborates with NGOs and youth within refugee camps and urban centers to test the accessibility and usability of the Pluralsight product

February 2018

Conducts Middle East needs assessment

Traveled to Amman, Jordan with NetHope Global Summit to conduct site visits, product testing and focus groups.

February 2018

Attends No Lost Generation Summit in Amman, Jordan

Pluralsight One spoke at the Summit, sharing Pluralsight One's work with conflict-affected refugee and host country youth.

January 2018

Pluralsight One brings Alice Steinglass to Silicon Slopes Tech Summit

Alice Steinglass, COO of Code.org, addresses the needs, challenges and opportunities around diversity and inclusion in tech.

January 2018

Letter of support

As a result of a letter of support for expanding computer science education, a task force was triggered and momentum continued throughout the state

2 0 1 7

December 2017

Advances K-12 computer science advocacy

Pluralsight One obtained over 2,000 signatures from leaders across the state of Utah to help ensure that every K-12 student has access to high-quality computer science learning.

October 2017

Joins NetHope Global Summit

Leading NGOs and private sector partners co-create and apply technology solutions against the world's most pressing challenges.

November 2017

Participates in Computer Science Education Week

Pluralsight One hosts Utah's first-ever Hour of Code workshop for LGBTQ+ youth at Encircle's IGNITE Summit.

October 2017

Project Homeless Connect

Pluralsight One partners to launch Project Homeless Connect, providing done-in-a-day services for individuals experiences homelessness.

September 2017

Pluralsight One commits $10M to K-12 Computer Science

$10M committed over 5 years to expand opportunities in computer science.

September 2017

Invited to No Lost Generation Tech Task Force Projects

Partnered with No Lost Generation and UNICEF to create solutions with conflict-affected youth who have limited opportunities.

September 2017

Pluralsight One launches at LIVE

Pluralsight One is our commitment to drive significant, lasting social impact by improving equal access to technology skills.

